- B. Public Questions/Comments - None

OLD BUSINESS

A. Board Policies

1. The Board approved the revisions for the board policies: 0110, 167.3, 3120, 6114, 6152, 7450, 8310, 8320, 8330 as presented. Motioned by Novess, supported by Tindall. Roll Call Vote; 6-0
2. Replacement- The Board approved the board policy replacement for 5722 as presented. Motioned by Horky, supported by Naylor. Roll Call Vote; 6-0

B. District Wide Facilities Assessment:

Kody Naylor asked if the proposal is coming out of the pocket of the school budget and if we are not on the hook unless the bond passes. Brandon Woods asked about the $5000.00 buffer that is in this proposal. Corey Horky wanted clarification if it is an assessment of conditions and recommendations. Brad Bezeau spoke to all the questions related; that it would not take funds unless the bond passes, that the amount would not exceed the $15,000 based on the conditions and it's just the quote. The Board accepted the District Wide Facilities Assessment from Moore Trosper as presented. Motioned by Horky, supported by Naylor. Roll Call Vote; 6-0

NEW BUSINESS

A. Building & Grounds update given by Michael Tindall

The Village of Manchester came to the school because they needed part of the land of Klager for a disc golf course. Michael Tindall asked the Village for a better proposal with details of where and how much land for a clear understanding. Corey Horky asked what is the liability standpoint from the school? Rebecca Harvey questioned if we will be additionally insured? Brandon Woods wanted to know if the meeting has been arranged to go over the proposal, which Michael will follow up to set a date.
